Spring 2019 Small Group Semester Dates

Small Group Spring semester will begin February 4 and run through April 28. Your Small Group Leader(s) will provide a syllabus at the first group session.

Study Guides/Material

Small Groups may require each person to purchase a study guide or study materials to coincide with the weekly study sessions and personal study time. Guide/material cost and where to purchase is detailed within each Small Group description.

Childcare Space Provided

The Small Groups with a “ ” are the groups that will provide the space for childcare, however the Leader(s) and/or Host(s) are not responsible for providing the person(s) to care and monitor children while the group is in session. We recommend the parents within each group that have this need collectively coordinate this responsibility – i.e. the caregiver/monitor, and their transportation and/or pay (if applicable).

Group Service Project

Each group will be engaging in one volunteer service project during the semester, and it is something determined by the individual groups. For questions, please talk with your Small Group Leaders.

Bait of Satan by John Bevere S198

Leaders: Laura Whisnant & Sharon Bowman

Thursday, 7:00 p.m. at New Vision Youth Building (Lincolnton)

This powerful study is one of the most important confrontations with truth you'll encounter in your lifetime. It exposes Satan's deceptive snare, offense, used to get believers out of the will of God. The issue of offense – the very core of The Bait of Satan - is often the most difficult obstacle an individual must face and overcome. Jesus said, "It is impossible that no offenses should come" (Luke 17:1 NKJV). Your choice is not in whether or not you get offended, but in how you choose to respond. This message will empower you to stay free from offense, enabling you to have an unhindered relationship with God and others. Study Guide should be purchased in advance, and is $10.99 plus S&H from www.christianbook.com.

Unashamed by Christina Caine S199

Leaders: Karen Benfield & Krista Weisgerber

Sunday, 6:00 p.m. at the McGrady's home (Lincolnton)

Shame tends to wrap itself around our hearts like a net that can be hard to untangle. Wounds from childhood such as bullying, abuse, or divorce wreak havoc on our souls. You can break free from these traps by clinging to God's truth, dropping the baggage and living your destiny to the fullest.

In Unashamed, Christine Caine shares that, in order to change the future, you have to believe that God is bigger than your mistakes, inadequacies, past, and limitations. Find freedom from the belief you are fundamentally flawed and unworthy of acceptance, and prepare to step into a future knowing you are confident, dearly loved, and created for a divine purpose. Study Guide should be purchased in advance, and is $7.99 plus S&H from www.christianbook.com.
